Date of Incident: 4-29-09

Time of Incident: 09:30

Place of Incident: E.M.C.F. Intake

Alleged complaint: Property lost or stolen

This complaint concerns my property that has been placed in E.M.C.F. property room. I have written request's to the staff here asking to see if my property still's remains in the property room. There's been break-ins and I think some of all my property might be stolen. I've given my property list to Unit 1 Manager Mr. Barker, and has made many verbal request to be taken to my property. The value of my property is over five hundred dollars and everything was brought from the M.D.C. canteen.

Relief Requested:

To see my property and to have it ready for me when I'm transfer out. If my property has been stolen, I want the property value placed in my inmate account. ASAP!

CERTIFICATE

Inmate Name Penner, Enlin
MDOC No. 12264
ARP No. Smof. 10.516

The Administrative Remedy Program administered by the Mississippi Department of Corrections was adopted February 15, 1984, pursuant to an order entered by U.S. District Court Judge L.T. Senter, Senior Judge, of the United States District Court, Northern District for Mississippi.

This order required that there be three steps to the procedure.

Subsequently, a number of states, including Mississippi, have determined that the three step process is somewhat cumbersome and that a two step process is all that is necessary in order to ensure a complete administrative review process.

Pursuant to the motion of the MDOC, Judge Davis entered an Amended Order on August 19, 2010, mandating that a two step process be instituted September 17, 2010.

A copy of this order is posted in all housing units.

Therefore, based upon the information outlined above, this Certificate is issued so that you may have immediate judicial access.

RE: ARP Number EMCF-2010-576

Dear Mr. David Petrie

Sir, I'm writing you this request, reason being I want to know the status of my ARP about my property, the department heads at EMCF has continue to lie to me verbally about my property. I was transferred from EMCF and told by Maj. Grubbs that he was going to find and send me my property. But hasn't as of yet, it's very hot here in SMCI, I need my property Sir. So would you find out what taking them so long to answer my STEP 3, cause I'm ready to file into Court and get my property value.
